
Giving Food, Giving Love Effort Appreciation Letter- Kent State Campus Kitchen

Description: The proceeds from the Giving Food, Giving Love drive was donated to the Kent State chapter of Campus Kitchen. Ultimately, we collected 3,800 units of food which was the Kitchen's largest single donation in their history. The administrator of the Kitchen wrote me an appreciation letter and thanked my team. I included this letter in my achievement portion to signify the dedication, hard work, and effort I put into a project to see that the end result not only meets the goal, but exceeds it.

Dear Erica,

Thank you and your teammates for identifying the Campus Kitchen at Kent State University as the community partner to benefit from your work. It is apparent from the success of your project that you learned much about working together as a team to accomplish your goals.

The donation from your team project in Communication in Small Groups and Teams was our largest single donation. Your collection of more than 3,800 food items and more than 3,200 pounds of food was simply amazing. It also came at a great time – the end of the semester always finds our food pantry lacking in so many items that are needed for our weekly meal preparations. Your donation restocked the shelves with many needed items.

Our team of students in the Campus Kitchen is still smiling and marveling at your team's work and effort and is very thankful for the donation. Our team of students is committed to meeting local hunger needs and you have contributed in a large way to making that happen.

Best to you and your fellow team members as you approach finals week.

Again, thank you for your generous effort. It will make a difference for those in need in our community.

Sincerely,

Ann Gosky
