Clinique Consultant- Macy's Organizational Performance Letter

Description: Employees of Macy's and Clinique Consultants have daily, monthly, and yearly statistical standards and expectations to meet and exceed. Individuals who exceed sales expectations receive special acknowledgment within the company. The "Top Talent" associates are determined by both department and store managers based on employee performance and excellence in various sales dimensions. I received this letter notifying me of my selection as a "Top Talent" associate in 2012.
